As a boy, the author dreamed of wonderful municipal playgrounds, of organizations giving the boys opportunity to camp in the open, of zoological and to the understanding of youth. His busy life as a civil engineer, surveyor, and work in

develop his dreams,
but at the end of a
five year tour of the United States and Canada, made over fifty years ago, he

most difficult part of his task was to convince the men of the swivel chairs that boys' leisure should be spent in the open; that the blue sky is the only proper roof for a normal boy's playground; also that the open spaces are the places where God intended young people to live, work propaganda work did however win for him the moral support of the editorial staff of St. Nicholas, Youth's Companion and Harpers. Later he was openly backed and encouraged by such distinguished sportsmen as President Roosevelt, his chief forester Governor Pinchot,

While the stalwart

failed not in voicing their approval.
Furthermore he was
