The "Candy Man" series admittedly is more light-hearted than some of her other work. Darrin, candy shop owner and prescient matchmaker, is the lightning rod for these novels although in the actual stories his character only appears a few times. ... Born in Utrecht, Holland, Hans van Zon was a very quiet child. According to those that knew him he would quite often drift away into a fantasy world. He was also a very selfish kid, something that his mother can take all the blame for by making him feel as though he was the center of the universe. His scholastic record proved that he was far from outstanding, and from his average school years ...
