Into the Jungle Ch.8 |

FreebookSummary

Unwittingly, Jurgis and his family moved from one jungle into another. In opposition to those who die are those who survive, and survival in this jungle, as foreshadowed in this chapter, means drinking and prostitution. This survival, though, is only a physical one, for the spirit is eventually destroyed.

Chapter 7

A recurring motif in The Jungle – that in the real world love places second to economics – dominates this chapter. In addition to the difficulties that Jurgis and
